

“Bringing Entertainment to Another Level”

This February 27, 2010 FP-Productions will be holding their dance competition BoogieDaBeat. The last two BoogieDaBeats have been a great success for the Arizona Dance scene. This year we will be trying to make it even better. We will be having special guest performance by Family Royale’s Press P.L.A.Y from Sacramento, CA along with special guest choreographers who will be the judges and the teachers for the BoogieDaBeat workshop (February 28, 2010). Also, this year prizes will be rewarded to the top 3 groups. Ultimate grand prize will be $1000 cash & a trophy!

Dance Team/Crew:	$100.00

“Bringing Entertainment to Another Level”

We require the following to be adhered to during the event. This will ensure a positive experience for everyone involved

Rules and Regulations

1. Each competing group/ team is required to have one routine with a maximum time of 7 minutes. If you go pass the time limit we will CUT you off.
2. The music must be in a CD format. Profanity is not allowed. Judges will deduct points for each curse word.
3. Each competing group must turn in the entry the fee to secure a spot to compete for BoogieDaBeat. Each member on the dance crew roster has to be a competing dancer. Please register your group as early as possible. This year we have an about 30 teams invited for BoogieDaBeat, but we can only accept the first 15 crews. Winner of the past two BoogieDaBeat's Elektrolytes will have a secure spot at BoogieDaBeat. Your crew names will be promoted on the flyers and FP-Productions website for BoogieDaBeat after entry fee is turned in.
4. Each judge will award up to 100 points. The total score of the judges will determine the ranking of the routine. Judges will take into consideration choreography (30%), technique (25%), showmanship (20%), precision (15%) and costumes (10%).

To ensure our safety along with everyone participating, we would like to encourage everyone that BoogieDaBeat is a friendly competition, please keep everything on the dance floor. Thank you for your support!
